U. S. TAKES STEPS TO PREVENT FURTHER MEXICAN OUTBREAKS; CARRANZA POSTPONES ATTACK

Washington, June 29.—In line with its policy to prevent, if possible, further revolutionary movements in Mexico or at least the setting on foot of any such expeditions on American soil, the American government has taken steps to prevent any violations of neutrality regardless of the prominence of the individuals or their affiliations.

The arrest of Generals Victoriano Huerta and Pascual Orozco at El Paso, would appear to be part of this general policy. It is said the department of justice was in possession of some evidence which seemed to connect General Angeles, Villa's right-hand man, with a plot in which citizens of one of the European belligerent powers are involved. Angeles it was said, was to call at the state department today to deny that he was in any way involved.

General Angeles and Lorente went to the war department and entered conversation with the chief of staff. In view of Lorente's announcement that the mission of Angeles was a military one and General Scott's thorough familiarity with Mexican affairs which includes an intimate acquaintance with Villa, the conference attracted no little attention.

For six days there has been on word received here as to what has happened in Mexico City.

Latest news to Vera Cruz by courier reached here several days ago when conditions were described as extremely critical. What happened since then no one here knows because the Mexican capital has been cut off from telegraphic communication with the outside world. These advisers said that Zapatistas had defeated General Gonzalez and taken a good deal of ammunition and other military supplies. It is feared here that fighting may have been carried into the capital, thereby jeopardizing the lives of foreigners.

Much concern is felt here over the situation in the Mexican capital where the advisers said business had been suspended and there was a food shortage.

General Carranza telegraphed his agency here today that further attack on Mexico City was being delayed while General Gonzalez was trying to make arrangements to avoid a battle within the city itself. The diplomatic corps in Mexico City, the despatch stated, was taking steps to protect the non-combatants of all nationalities in the event of fighting within the city, and the Zapata forces were reported to have sent their archives to Cuernavaca.

The telegram was the first confirmation from Carranza since the defeat of General Villa by Zapata forces in the first attack.

REMOVE ZAPATA ARCHIVES.
 Galveston, June 29.—A report that the Zapata government archives had been removed from Mexico City to Cuernavaca was brought to the headquarters of General Gonzalez yesterday according to information reaching the constitutionalist consul here today.

INCREASE BORDER GUARDS.
 El Paso, June 29.—To supplement the efforts of the United States government toward preventing the entrance into Mexico of revolutionary factors from the American side of the border, General Villa is preparing to increase the garrison at Juarez, according to General Manuel, commissioned by Villa to investigate conditions in Juarez. It is understood that Villa already has recommended that 1,000 additional troops with artillery.

Jackson's Case Is Nollod; Shows He's Not City Resident

George W. Jackson, a salesman for hot water boilers who was arrested two months ago for non-support on complaint of Lella Jackson, former manicure at the Stratford baths, had his case nollod by Prosecutor Huxford in the criminal common pleas court today. He appealed from the city court where he was ordered to pay his wife $10 a week.

Jackson was represented today by Attorneys Lavery & Finkelstein. They proved to the satisfaction of Judge W. H. Jackson, former resident of this state at the time of his arrest, that he was not a city resident. Jackson also claimed he was ready and willing to provide a home for his wife in Yonkers, N. Y., where she resided.

At the time of his arrest Lella Jackson alleged that her husband lived in this city although he said he was only boarding here temporarily. He declared he didn't pay a cent toward his wife's support after she had him arrested.

Prof. Atlas Married? That's What They Say

Prof. James Atlas, one-time wrestling champion, strong man, and theatrical promoter, has taken unto himself a wife—according to rumors that have been widespread since he was married.

Prof. Atlas got a marriage license last week at the town clerk's office. The identity of the bride is concealed. Town clerk office employees have the right to conceal such records if they wish. They say so. But if the license goes through with the ceremony, the officiating clergyman or other personage who ties the knot must make the record public within 30 days. So, perhaps, the community must wait a month before getting all the graphic details.

Last Friday when things were quiet at the Hotel Atlas, the professor cleared a private dining room, and escorted an attractive young woman, and a strange man into the room. Just before this, he had procured a marriage license. What happened is only to be conjectured. But that the professor had become a married man, the report that spread, first through the hotel, and today through the town.

But the professor won't tell anything about it. If he's big strong fellow, yet, and reporters are a little timid about pressing him too closely for details.

BRYAN SPEAKS IN HOME TOWN ON WAY TO FRISCO

Lincoln, Neb., June 29.—William J. Bryan, accompanied by Mrs. Bryan, was met by a small party of friends this morning on their return to their home. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan are the guests of Mayor Charles W. Bryan, a brother, during a day's stay in the city.

Mr. Bryan will speak to-night at an open air meeting on the subject of "The Farm, A Friend of Peace." He will leave tomorrow for San Francisco, where he will give two addresses.

War Widows Want Husbands Quickly

Berlin, June 29.—The war has given a sudden and unprecedented impetus to the "marriage brokerage" game, and advertisements for husbands—war invalids in many cases—were never so plentiful as at present. Many women exhibit an irrepressible desire to get married right away and appear to be quite unconcerned about the kind of a husband they get.

Individual women who want to get married at any cost are not the only ones, however, who have taken advantage of the unusual situation. The more or less shady matrimonial agencies are making hay while the sun shines, and apparently stop at nothing in order to turn a questionable penny.

Thus many have, in some manner, procured the names and addresses of women whose husbands have been killed at the front, and intrude upon their grief with brazen offers of second husbands. The men for the most part are mere adventurers, but in a few cases are invalided soldiers, either anxious for a home or beguiled into letting their name be used.

Police Find Place Where Liquor's Sold Only on Sabbath Day

Officers of the Schwaebischer Sick Benefit society, including William E. Benenmann, Joseph Schietinger, John Rouns, John Dorby, and John Herscher, charged with violating the Sunday liquor law by selling to John Martin, appeared in the city court today after warrants had been issued by the liquor prosecutor. The case was continued until to-morrow at the request of Judge Coughlin who appeared in their interests.

Another to part with her infant is painful, although necessary is the child is to be saved. But marriage brings at least some happiness into the tragedy of disease-stricken lives.

Russian Holy Synod To Allow Marriage Of Leper To Another

Petrograd, June 29.—The Russian Medical Council has informed the Holy Synod that there is no objection to lepers marrying lepers, although the union of a leper to a healthy mate should not be allowed. This is the answer to the question raised by the Russian church.

The influence of the parents on their offspring in the spread of the disease is considered weak, since the percentage of infant leprosy is very small, only about five per cent. Fertility also decreases among lepers as the disease advances. Leprosy is not believed to be a hereditary disease, but one due to contact. For a leprosy mother to part with her infant is painful, although necessary is the child is to be saved. But marriage brings at least some happiness into the tragedy of disease-stricken lives.

Swiss People Willing To Pay Special Taxes For Mobilization Cost

Berne, Switzerland, June 29.—An amendment to the Swiss Federal Constitution, provided for the levying of a special war tax to meet the expenses incurred by the nation on the army for the maintenance of Swiss neutrality, which was submitted to a referendum vote of the entire people has been accepted by an overwhelming majority, the vote being 435,500 to 26,500.

The new taxes are both on property and income. Persons possessing less than $2,000 worth of property or earning less than $500 a year are exempt. The rate of tax is progressive, ranging from $1 to $15 per thousand on property and from $5 to $100 per thousand on income.

Stock companies will be taxed at a rate rising from $2 to $10 per thousand dollars of capital. The rate will vary according to the rate of dividend paid.

War Makes Baronet of Three-Year-Old

London, June 29.—The youngest baronet in England, Arthur Banks Jenkinson, aged three, who has just succeeded to the baronetcy on the death of his grandfather, Sir George Jenkinson, was today named as Captain J. E. Jenkinson was killed in action in September.

SPEDDER FINED.

Jacob Bernstein, aged 35, of 312 Benham avenue, charged with reckless driving, was fined $5 and costs in the city court today. George W. Dayton, who gave his residence as Stratford, arrested for reckless driving and speeding on Connecticut avenue, was fined $10 and costs.

CAN TELL SORT OF SHELL FROM NOISE IN AIR

"Artillery Ear" Is One of the Latest Products of European War.

Berlin, June 29.—The war has developed what might be termed an "artillery ear" especially among the soldiers in this branch of the service, which enables them to judge accurately what kind of a shell is being fired at them, and whether or not it is aimed at their battery or at some other spot. Many lives have been saved by this gradually developed oral alertness.

The artilleryist, explains an officer, who has been in the field for months, is able almost instinctively to tell whether a shell is headed for his battery or not. The men have learned to pay not the slightest attention to a shot that gives off the peculiar sound indicating that it is aimed at some other battery or position.

Because of the confusing noise of the artilleryist's own battery, the squad leader usually is divided into two groups, one of which listens for the shells of the opponents, and gives the warning to dive for the shelters back of the guns. The men learn to talk with pauses between each word, listening meantime for the tell-tale whistle of the dangerous shell.

Only in the case of the small field cannon, fired at a range of say 2,000 yards, is it impossible to hear the shells as they are fired. Those shells have reached their mark about as soon as the sound of their discharge.

The 12-centimeter flat-trajectory guns on the other hand gives just enough warning so that the men can make one dive. There isn't one fraction of a second to be wasted, but by quick action the artilleryist can save himself.

The big howitzers, however, give nearly half a minute's warning. As the officer puts it, one can hear the shells from these guns, and get out of a slice of wurst and take a swallow from one's "field bottle" before seeking shelter. The shelter in this case must be a genuine shelter, consisting of about three layers of heavy wood, and two yards of earth and stone. Else the shelter and artilleryist are gone.

JUNE WEDDINGS

REID—BUTT.
 Miss Grace Butt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Butt of 238 Harriet street, and Mr. Charles Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Reid of 215 Read street were united in marriage at 6 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Everett A. Burnes, pastor of Washington Park M. E. church, performed the ceremony in the presence of some 60 relatives and intimate friends of the young couple. The bride and groom were unattended. The bride wore a dainty costume of embroidered marquisette. The home was attractively decorated with daisies, lilies, roses and palms. Miss Butt was graduated from the Bridgeport High school in 1911 and from the City Normal school two years later. She has been a teacher at Waverlyville school for the past two years. Mr. Reid is a son of John H. Reid of the firm of Reid & Todd, jewelers and is prominent in fraternal circles. Mr. and Mrs. Reid left on a wedding trip to Lake George where they expect to remain two weeks. After August 1, they will be "at home" to their numerous friends at their pretty new home, 1167 Kosuth street.

CALLAHAN—DAVIN.
 A wedding of much interest locally will be solemnized in New Haven at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning when Mr. William Callahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Callahan of 3203 North Main street, this city, and Miss Mary Davin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Davin of Middletown avenue, were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Kelly of that city. Miss Davin will be attended by her sister, Miss Grace Davin and Vincent Callahan of this city, will be his brother's groomsmen. A wedding breakfast will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents to which the immediate families and a few intimate friends have been bidden.

The bride and groom will leave on a short wedding trip and upon their return they will reside at 195 Catherine street, this city, which has been newly fitted up for their occupancy. This was the birthplace of the groom and in the old homestead of his family. The bride is a very popular young woman in her town, where she has taught school for the past three years. Mr. Callahan is a machinist and co-maker with the Bridgeport Chain Co. and is a widely and popularly known young man of this city.

The young couple have received a great many beautiful and valuable wedding gifts from their numerous friends in the two cities.

Fighting At Front, German Scientists Win Essay Contests

Munich, June 29.—Being in the field on soldier duty has not prevented 11 metaphysics students from taking time to compete for the 1,000 mark prize offered by the Kant society for the best answer to the question, "What genuine advances have metaphysics made in Germany since time of Hegel and Herbart?"

Dr. Oscar Ewald of the University of Vienna, now at the front, was awarded the 1,000 mark prize, which was donated by Prof. Dr. Karl Guttler of the University of Munich. Another serving in the war, Dr. Kynast of Breslau, won the second prize of 500 marks. The judges were Prof. Russel of Göttingen, Prof. Hensel of Erlangen and Prof. Messer of Giessen.

Daniel Carter of Baltimore, is seeking a long lost sister in Bridgeport. Though he has not seen her in 25 years he recently received word that she had married a man named "Lemon" in this city. It is recalled that "A. L. Lemon" as he was known in business here. The police are endeavoring to help locate him.

Wall Street Banks sold drafts on London at a rate of $4.76 on the pound sterling, making a new low record.

Law and the Queen.
 The quaintness of many provisions of British law is curiously illustrated in the status of the queen of England. So far as her majesty's private business is concerned, she is not regarded by the laws and customs of England as a married woman at all. She is the only woman in Great Britain who does not come within the scope of the married woman's property act. The idea in all this is that affairs of state consume all the time of the king, and therefore no responsibility for the queen's private business rests upon him. If the queen contracted debts in her husband's name he would not be responsible for them, as any other husband in the United Kingdom would. The king cannot be sued for debt, but the queen can be. Should the king die some authorities hold that the queen could not marry again, in case she wished to, without the license of the king's successor.—New York Tribune.

Jitney Strikes Aged Man Crossing Street

As a result of two automobile accidents on North Main street this morning John Egan, aged 60, of Highland avenue, was seriously shaken up and lacerated slightly, and a large touring car bearing the number 26,882, the ownership of which is unknown to the police, was badly wrecked as it crashed into a telegraph pole in front of the Elita theatre.

Egan was attempting to cross Main street at Fairview avenue at 11 o'clock when a jitney driven by Edward Hornby, of 974 Grand street, struck him. He was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital by Fred R. Sullivan, 1,623 Fairfield avenue, who was driving a car past the spot at the time. Hornby later appeared at police headquarters where he was technically charged with reckless driving.

Shortly before 8 o'clock the big touring car bearing the number 26,882 became unmanageable and after doing some contortions in the roadway landed against a telegraph pole near Charles street. Four passengers in the car were uninjured but the machine suffered a broken axle and smashed headlights.

PORCH CHAIRS SURPRISE GIFT FOR MRS. W. F. O'HARA

Over a score of friends, members of the Sunshine Club, paid a surprise visit to Mr. and Mrs. William F. O'Hara, at their new cottage Arabo, on Laurel avenue, Walnut Beach, Saturday evening. Incidentally Mrs. O'Hara was presented with enough handsome porch chairs and rockers to afford comfortable seats for the many friends who will enjoy her hospitality during the summer, even if many come at the same time.

The affair was in the nature of a house-warming and the unexpected guests and their host and hostess thoroughly enjoyed themselves with informal games, singing and dancing. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Quinn, Lieut. and Mrs. William O'Leary, Miss Quinlan, Mrs. Michael Sullivan and son, Miss Elizabeth Rohman, Miss Ethel Rohman, Miss Julia Nairn, Miss Loretta Fay, Miss Geraldine O'Hara, Michael Sheridan, Andrew Taylor, Thomas Gaffney, Bert Gaffney and Mr. and Mrs. John Dempsey and John Dempsey, Jr., of New York.

MOTHER AND SON DEAD AS RESULT OF SUICIDE PACT

Buffalo, June 29.—Mrs. Sarah Taylor, 57, and her son Roy, 28 years old, were found dead at their home here to-day. Both had been shot in the head and the son still clasped a revolver in his hand. The gas in the room was found turned on.

According to the police, the tragedy was the result of a suicide pact.

City Planners Fight Bridge Commissioners

 It was shown by the Plan commission how much money will be saved in the length of the bridge and materials necessary. This was also shown by the special committee, which reported to the common council, but which received scant consideration.

FRENCH MAIL BUSINESS CONTINUES TO BE HEAVY

Paris, June 29.—War has had contrary effects on the postal service of France. Obstructions to commerce and industry resulted in a great decrease in business correspondence, but this is more than compensated by the increase in personal letters between members of dispersed families and the soldiers and their relatives. In a single day the postal department handled 14 million letters, 780 thousand registered letters and packages, 135 thousand newspapers and 57 thousand postal orders. The volume of matter has steadily increased since December.

But the moratorium, the closing of a number of financial establishments and the suppression of discount has also turned a great flood of collection business to the postal department.

Naturally, "dead letters" have also largely increased, partly through the impossibility of delivering the letters or packages to their destination, but largely on account of defective addresses. Between December 1914 and May 5th last eight and a half million letters and nearly sixty thousand packages were thrown into the refuse heap. Among the letters that have gone to the "Dead Letter Office" during that time were found bank bills to the amount of $60,000, francs of which the department has been able to return to its owners only about $6,000.
